How we use the information about you

By joining the INS, we will only use your data for administrative purposes or in the case of an emergency, unless you have consented to be contacted.

We process members' personal data in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation's requirement of legitimate interest. We will only hold your data for 2 years, unless you renew your membership or object to our retention of your data. You may object at any time to INS or to the Information Commissioner's Office. We will not share your information with any third parties. Our full Privacy Policy is available from the office upon request. Occasionally, we may want to advise you of renewals, inform you of events and contact you directly if we are concerned about your well-being. May we contact you by phone, email, or at your address for the above-described purposes?

During our events we may like to take photographs or make a video recording of the occasion. These images may appear in our printed publications, in the media, on video, or on our website. Images from our events will never be used for private interests. May we use photographs that include you in our publications, media coverage, website and promotions?

Yes or No (please circle)

You may withdraw your consent to be contacted and/or to have your image used in our promotions at any time by emailing info@irishnetworkstevenage.org.uk.

We are often asked to report on our events to make sure they are accessible by all and to help identify if there are any barriers to these events that we may not be aware of, for example disabled access. When we write these reports, we do not give any names, we just give total numbers. Therefore, we are asking the following questions to help with our monitoring. You do not have to answer them, but it will help us when we apply for funding.

What do you consider your ethnicity?
Are you registered disabled?
What is your religion

We are a volunteer led charity and if you are interested in joining our team please do contact the office for an informal chat.

By signing this membership form, you have read, understood, and agree to the terms and conditions of INS membership.
